CHEANEY CASE TUESDAY

Several Fines Assessed and One Man Convicted of House Breaking Wilford Johnson, charged with cutting in sudden affray, entered a plea of guilty and was fined $50.

E. W. Lantrip, charged with conspiracy to commit fraud and obtain public money, was fined $300. Ten other indictments, charging fraudulent statements, were dismissed.

In the case of Sandy Billingsby, under an indictment charging burglary, the jury failed to agree. The prisoner was remanded to jail.

Willie Johnson, charged with maliciously shooting and wounding another, was fined $50 for shooting in sudden affray, the felony charge having been waived.

Ed Pendleton, housebreaking, verdict of guilty and his punishment fixed at two years in the penitentiary.

The suits brought by Commonwealth's Attorney Smith against the Hopkinsville Gas & Electric Co., The Planters Hardware Co., The Home Telephone Co., The Forbes Manufacturing Co., and Lockyear's Business College have been dismissed on the basis of one fine of $100 for the five cases. The indictments were for the omission of the word "incorporated" from their advertising.

The case of the Commonwealth against Charlie Burris, col., under an indictment charging him with willful murder, was called Thursday afternoon and trial entered into. A night session of court was held and the taking of testimony was concluded before adjournment Thursday night. Yesterday morning the case was argued and given to the jury at noon. Following is a list of the jurors: John M. Greenwood, F. M. Young, T. B. Caldwell, T. J. Moseley, Ed Mabry, Wm. Sadler, C. T. Connor, J. H. Boyd, A. B. Word, Geo. Crabtree, R. O. Torian, J. F. Witte. Defendant is accused of murdering his wife, Carrie Burris, at Pembroke, one night last fall.

HOLLAND CASE

Benton, Ky., March 15.—The jury to try Walter Holland was selected and empaneled this morning and the hearing of evidence was begun this afternoon. The jury was selected from a special venire of 150 men summoned to report this morning, after about 75 men had been examined and rejected.

TOMPKINS HANGED.

Mr. Thomas W. Long, cashier of the First National Bank, is confined to his room.

Mr. Will L. Cooper is able to be at his place of business again.

Mrs. Will L. Johnson, who has been quite ill for three weeks, is not improving.

Judge C. H. Bush is well enough to sit up, but it will be several days before he can go to his office.

Dr. T. W. Blakey's condition is more encouraging and there is no fear as to his ultimate recovery.

A DESERVED COMPLIMENT.

Henry Lawrence Indorsed for Adjutant General by the Legislature.

EVERY MEMBER SIGNED.

Republicans and Democrats Alike Recognize His Ability.

Frankfort, Ky., March 16.—It is seldom that one man on his record is able to obtain the indorsement of 100 members of a House of Representatives for a political office, in respect of the party affiliations of the indorsers, yet this is just what has happened to Speaker Henry R. Lawrence. Yesterday a petition was taken to Governor Beckham bearing the signatures of all the members of the House, asking the executive to appoint Mr. Lawrence to the position of Adjutant General, which is vacant by virtue of the promotion of Adjutant General Haley to be a member of the Board of Control of the Charitable Institutions of the State.

The high honor conferred upon Mr. Lawrence by his fellow-members is well deserved, and whether the Governor sees fit or not to accede to the request of the Representatives, Mr. Lawrence will know in what high esteem he is held by those with whom he has been associated during the session.

No more deserved honor could be conferred upon any person in the political circles in the State than upon Mr. Lawrence.

A REAL D. A. R.

Pension Asked of Congress By Mr. James M. Richardson.

Washington, March 12.—Representative Richardson, of Kentucky, will introduce a bill pensioning Mrs. Lavinia Ray, of Metcalfe county, at the rate of $25 per month. Mrs. Ray is the last surviving daughter in Kentucky of a Revolutionary soldier. Her father, Col. Edmund Rogers, came to Kentucky shortly after the Revolutionary War and brought with him, as a boy, Joseph Underwood, who afterward represented the State in the Senate.

TEMPERANCE MEETING

At the Cumberland Presbyterian Church Sunday.

There will be an anti-saloon meeting at the Cumberland Presbyterian church next Sunday morning at the usual hour of service. There will be no services at the First Presbyterian church, as the congregation will attend the services at the Cumberland church.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT

Befalls Mrs. Abner Witherspoon.

Mrs. Abner Witherspoon, formerly Miss Beulah Cravens, was the victim of a right painful, but not serious, accident early Thursday morning. Mrs. Witherspoon, together with Mr. Witherspoon, was standing on the steps to the front porch of the residence on West 10th street, when in some way Mrs. Witherspoon's feet slipped from under her, the steps being slick from the light snow that had fallen, and she received a very hard fall upon the floor, dislocating one of her limbs at the knee joint. Dr. Thomas was called at once and set the member and Mrs. Witherspoon is getting along alright and will soon be out again.

ANOTHER FIRE NEAR TRENTON

Large Stable Containing Live Stock and Provender Destroyed Thursday Night

LOSS IS VERY HEAVY.

Fire Believed to Be of Incendiary Origin and There Is Much Excitement.

Trenton, Ky., March 16.—J. W. Camp, a farmer living about two and a half miles north of this place, lost a large stable by fire last night. The building contained five head of mules, two horses, about 250 barrels of corn, five tons of hay, wagons and harness and farming implements. The origin of the flames is unknown, but it is believed that an incendiary applied the torch. The fire was discovered too late to save the stock or anything else of value. The loss amounts to probably $2,000. Bloodhounds from Hopkinsville have been sent for. This is the third barn in this section destroyed by fire in the past few weeks and excitement in the community is running high.

pretty heating stove put in position and a beautiful reclining couch supplied. The room is lighted by electric bulbs, and everything looks cozy and homelike. The Chief is as proud of his new apartment as a boy with his first pair of roller skates.

The Weather.

For Kentucky—Partly cloudy and warmer Saturday.

The Third Appellate District Democratic primary will be held June 2.

The Legislature has taken a recess until next Tuesday and most of the members have gone home.

The cabin in which Abraham Lincoln was born will be brought to Louisville during home coming week.

The Democratic Committee of the First District has ordered a primary election for June 8. Ollie James at present has no opposition.

Representative R. W. Miller introduced a drastic bill in the Legislature providing for great publicity as to the objects of lobbyists and the expenses and methods of attaining their ends.

Patterson defeated Cox in the primary election in Davidson county, Tenn., to elect delegates to the gubernatorial convention. This gives Patterson a vote of 410 and Cox 314.
There are many contests and a good many unopposed votes and 412 delegates are yet to be chosen.

House Bill 250 appropriating $20,000 for the Colored Normal School at Frankfort was passed during the closing hours of the Legislature through the efforts of Representative Munnell Wilson and others.
The Democrats of the State continue to be very liberal to the colored people.

The papers report Lieut. Gov.
Thorne as giving way to a burst of profanity while presiding over the Senate. If this charge is true, Col.
Thorne has forfeited the good opinion of a great many religious people who do not believe that profane or blasphemous language is ever necessary; especially to emphasize the decisions of a gentleman occupying the dignified position of Lieutenant Governor of a great state, whose constitution recognizes the christian religion.

The Clarksville Herald intimates that the Clarksville warehousemen are about to come down from their high horse and "get good." It says:
"The reports which were current last week in Guthrie, Hopkinsville and Clarksville that the latter place would be abandoned as a sales point by the Association in favor of Guthrie, have all been set at rest by assurances from General Manager Ewing, President Fort and others that a market will inevitably be maintained at this point by the Association. It appears that the Executive Committee had no such idea as to abandon Clarksville as a sales point; that such a course would be entirely out of harmony with its fixed policy, and that the move of the headquarters to Guthrie is simply to get a more central location and comply with the conditions of the organization's charter."

superior merits.

A dispatch from Glasgow has this to say of a new law: "The dog tax law recently passed by the Kentucky Legislature has caused much general discussion throughout the State than any act since the famous Goebel election law. An advocate of the law is an exception. So very bitter are some that actual mutiny is advocated when the sheriff or deputy shall come to collect the tax or kill the dogs. Occasionally a dog hater will say the law is a good one, but he is met with such a storm of indignation that if he survives the shock he will not care to repeat his opinion.

In the meantime political axes are being sharpened and laid away for future use and according to the signs, as often as the advocates of that law raise their heads for office that often will there be a new political grave in Kentucky, be he Democrat or Republican."

Chauncey M. Morlan, the heaviest man in the world, joined the Elks lodge at Elwood, Ind., last week.
He is 30 years old and weighs 640 pounds. By a special dispensation he was not required to ride the goat.

The President will name Secretary Taft to succeed Justice Brown, who will retire from the Supreme Court at the end of the present term of court.

CAPITOL CORNERSTONE

Will Be Laid About Middle of April.

Frankfort, Ky., March 15.—The Frankfort Business Men's Club tonight appointed committees from its membership to arrange for laying the cornerstone of the new State capitol.
The cornerstone will be laid about the middle of April, the exact date to be fixed later, and a programme of exercises, including addresses by Kentuckians of note, will be arranged. An effort will be made to arrange railroad rates from all points in the State for the occasion, which will be one of the most notable in the history of the capital.

MR. H. M. DALTON

Will Move to His New Offices
Next Week.

The new suite of rooms for the use of Mr. H. M. Dalton, on the first floor front over Cooper's grocery are nearly finished. By the middle of next week Mr. Dalton will be in his new quarters and ready for business. The rooms are models of convenience and beauty, and the projecting window on Main street affords a fine view of North and South Main.

COUNCIL LAST NIGHT.

Several Matters of Importance Were Up For Consideration.

The City Council met last night in regular semi-monthly session, with a considerable amount of business on hand. The expected action on the stock law brought out an unusually large number of spectators. The proceedings cannot be given in this issue, owing to the early hour of going to press.

For Fast Riding.

Things have been unusually quiet in police circles since the arrest of a lot of crap shooters Saturday night.
The only case on the "slate" is that of a young negro boy by the name of Anthony Layne, for fast riding.
The city judge found him guilty and assessed a fine of $10 and cost against him.

Five hundred shares of stock in the Hopkinsville Building and Loan Association will be placed on the market April 1, 1906. Did you ever think of the advantages offered by this Association?

LADY MISSIONARY

Will Lecture at First Presbyterian Church Sunday Night.

Miss Lydia A. Hayes will lecture at the First Presbyterian church next Sunday night. Miss Hayes comes here from Sitka, Alaska, where she has been engaged in missionary work for two years. She has also given several years in the same cause in New Mexico. She comes here under the direction of the missionary committee of the Presbytery of Louisville (Northern Assembly) and is said to be a most entertaining speaker. She is called "the young peoples' missionary" on account of the fact that she always claims the closest attention of young people. Services will begin promptly at 7:30, and everybody is cordially invited to attend.

LOCAL LEAFLETS.

The groundhog was good on his prognostication this year, but he went out of business Wednesday.

March came in like a lamb but it has been giving us some fair samples of winter in the past few days, the mercury standing at 30 above Thursday.

Some people have already planted early peas, lettuce and radish seeds.
The Hopkinsville Canning Company, says the manager, will can more goods the coming season than it did last.

There are smaller places than Hopkinsville which have secured government buildings during the present session of Congress. We are glad to know that subscriptions are being secured asking for one here.

Revival Services.

The services at the Ninth Street Presbyterian church, which have been in progress under the preaching of Rev. Dr. Bull during this week, have all been well attended and the membership is taking great interest in the work, assisting Drs.
Fogartie and Bull to the fullest.
The consensus of opinion is that Dr.
Bull is delivering a series of the most powerful sermons ever preached here. The pastors of the different churches have been attending the services and encouraging the preacher in every way possible. The morning services have all been largely attended and are exceedingly helpful.

TELEPHONE MERGER IS ORGANIZED.

Home Companies of Many Cities Consolidated With Headquarters at Louisville.

$5,000,000 CAPITAL.

Connections Will Soon Extend to All Parts of the Country.

The Central Home Telephone Company, a $5,000,000 corporation, has been organized to purchase fifteen or twenty independent telephone systems in Kentucky and Southern Indiana, says the Courier-Journal.
The arrangements practically have been completed, and companies at Owensboro, Henderson, Mayville, Paducah and Bowling Green, Ky., and Bedford and Bloomington, Ind., have been taken in.

The Independent Long Distance Company, which practically is the Louisville Home Telephone Company, is now building a line from Louisville to Bowling Green, where it will connect with lines being constructed by the Central Home Telephone Company and the Long Distance Telephone and Telegraph Company, of Alabama and Tennessee.
Through these lines, the company will be enabled to reach Nashville, Tenn., Decatur, Ala., Birmingham, Ala., Atlanta, Ga., Mobile, Ala., and Southern points.

To meet the Louisville extension at Bowling Green, the Central Home Company is constructing a line, and has it nearly completed, from Henderson to Hopkinsville and from Bowling Green to Paducah, thence to Cairo, where it will meet a line being constructed from St. Louis to Cairo for the purpose. Through Cairo lines will be extended through Illinois, Evansville, Ind., and to the East through Portsmouth, O., thus giving the company an outlet in every direction.

The most marked effect of this merger or organization for a closer community of interests will be the increased earning power of the smaller companies without a visible outlay of expenditures. Many of these companies under the former management had nothing but local capital to back them, and no matter upon what business basis they were formed, it was necessary, in order to reach out and extend the service, to turn practically all the profits into additional construction. Unless such lines could be extended indefinitely, the earning capacity were necessarily curtailed and the business of the company limited. With the merger with the larger corporation, the business of such companies will be extended just so much as the innumerable increase of facilities is provided by the merger.

The company is backed principally by Louisville men, although E. L.
Barber, of Massillon, O., is the prime organizer. The corporation was completed in New Jersey several months ago, but the objects of the company have been kept quiet. Mr. Barber is president of the company; Joshua D. Powers, of Louisville, is treasurer, and J. L. Monteith, of Bloomington, Ind., is secretary.
The general office will be in Louisville.

MR. J. S. S. WALLIS

Died Suddenly at Lincoln, Neb., Tuesday Night.

Mr. A. M. Wallis received a telegram Wednesday night announcing the death of his only brother, Mr. J.
S. S. Wallis, at Lincoln, Nebraska, early Tuesday night.

Mr. Wallis left Hopkinsville 1868, and went to Nebraska, and his visit here last fall was the first after his removal. He had just moved to Lincoln from Shickley. Mr. Wallis had been in feeble health for years and his death was sudden, though not altogether unexpected. He was 61 years of age and was born in Bedford County Tennessee. His wife, two sons and a married daughter survive him.

HOPKINSVILLE HEADQUARTERS

Commercial Club Takes Important Action On Tobacco Question.

RESOLUTIONS OF CLUB

Concerning Planters Protective Association of Dark Tobacco District.

At a meeting of the Hopkinsville Commercial Club held on the evening of March 15, 1906, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

"Resolved—That the Hopkinsville Commercial Club express its interest in the great movement of The Planters' Protective Association of the Dark Tobacco District, and its full appreciation of the splendid results of their work already attained and in prospect; and pledge the utmost co-operation of the club to said association in their every effort and aim; and as a means to this end, a committee of five members is hereby appointed to secure a suitable building to be offered to the association for their use—free of rent—for such time as needed.

Resolved, further—That a committee of three be elected by the club to convey these resolutions to the executive committee of the Planters' Protective Association, or the proper authorities, and for the purpose of giving personal assurance of our good will and to extend to them a hearty welcome to our city as headquarters for said association."

It is more than likely that the Eggleton factory on Third and Liberty streets will be rented for the purpose, if the association will accept the Commercial Club's offer.

Buggy Days

At the Planters

March 22, 23, and 24.

We have one car load of buggies and surreys, that were shipped us through mistake by the factory. These people advise us to close these buggies out at factory cost to build them.

This car load of work will be sold for spot cash, (no trade.) This being an opportunity of a lifetime, we have decided to offer these on the above dates, that our customers may have a chance to get a buggy or driving wagon at factory cost, less the freight. We have five car loads of our regular work; also one car load of high grade buggies, phaetons, stanhopes, surreys, bike wagons, park wagons and top buggies, on which we will make you special prices.

We have no old carried over work to offer. We sold all our last year's purchase. All our work is new and fresh. We are now in better shape to serve the public. We bought in car lots and paid spot cash and obtained the lowest possible prices. Come and see the largest line of vehicles ever shown in Hopkinsville. This stock would be a credit to the repositories of the largest cities.

STOLEN BY THIEVES.Mrs. Brewster's Pumpkin Bank and Its Unhappy Ending.

One of our correspondents writes us this fearful tale of Mrs. Brewster, who lived in one of the rural districts of Minnesota, and who once thought she knew a great deal about the proper care of money.

One day Mrs. Brewster sold a farm. When the deal was closed, the buyer handed her a check for $3,000.00 on the local bank. She said she didn't know anything about checks. She must have the cash. So they drove to town and the cashier began counting out $3,000.00 in nice big bills. Mrs. Brewster said she didn't know much about the genuineness of paper money. She wanted gold. So the cashier paid her the $3,000.00 in gold, but he ventured to suggest that she leave the money on deposit and check it out as she needed it. But Mrs. Brewster said she didn't know much about banks, and that she would take the money home.

She packed the gold in some tomato cans which she had brought with her for that purpose, and drove home with the price of her farm.

Arriving at home she cast about for some safe place of deposit for so much wealth. A great pile of golden yellow pumpkins on the barn floor gave her an idea. She cut a little slot in the side of the pumpkin and poked gold pieces into it until it would hold no more. This process was repeated until the whole sum had been safely stuffed into the pumpkins. It made the pumpkins pretty heavy, but she managed to carry them all up into the hay mow, and stored them under the hay so that no human power could reach them.

Mrs. Brewster slept soundly for thirty nights. Then, when she was ready to drive to town for another month's supply of groceries, she went into the hay mow to visit the office of the Golden Pumpkin Trust Company and draw $20 for current expenses.

The pumpkins were all there under the hay, but each one had been nicely halved by a burglarious butcher knife and all the contents removed excepting a few seeds. Mrs. Brewster wept copiously for one hour and thirty minutes, and then drove over to the house of an honest neighbor to ask his advice.

"It's too late for advice in this case," said he, thoughtfully. "But I can give you a lot of reliable information about pumpkins. They make mighty fine pies, and the city factories find them useful in the manufacture of pure fruit preserves. But if nature had intended 'em for safe deposit boxes they'd have steel shells and time locks, and I've never yet seen a punkin with any o' them appurtenances. I don't want to discourage you, Widow Brewster, nor destroy your faith in the fidelity and security of the great American punkin, but next time you deposit money in one o' 'em, you take my tip and put the punkin in the bank."

Banks Not Only for Rich.

Has it been your idea that it takes a "moneyed man" to have a bank account? Wrong. The $10-a-week man can make use of a bank as well as the $10,000-a-year man can, and the bank account will help the one to get ahead in life just as well as it will help the other. A bank account isn't so much a matter of means as of meaning.

If Mrs. Brewster had deposited her money in a savings bank, where it could have drawn a fair rate of interest, she would be better off today. Don't be like the lady mentioned, but bring your money to the COMMERCIAL AND SAVINGS BANK. We will pay you three per cent. on your savings and will credit you with the interest on July 1st and January 1st.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Senator Frank Rives returned from Frankfort Wednesday. Senator Rives supported the Stewart Libel Bill in the Senate and showed his friendly feeling for the newspapers of his county and district. It was not his fault that the bill was killed in the House. We are glad to know that he was on the right side of this question and most other matters that came up in the Senate.
